

December 12, 2011 MINUTES

The December 12, 2011 meeting of The Village Bicycle Club was called to order by our president, Bob Kopp, with the Pledge of Allegiance.

We enjoyed our annual Christmas dinner. Over 85 members participated this year. All of the Club members that put this dinner together were thanked.

Following are the elected Officer of the Club.

President - Ed Hankwitz
Vice President – John Schwab
Ride Leader – Paul Patterson
Secretary – Bob Kraus (See Note)
Membership Chairman – Jim Speckbrock
Treasurer - Jamie Schwartz
Web Master – Bernie Stopper

NOTE: Bob Kraus has agreed to serve until a volunteer is found to take the job. He would like this to be a short term. If you are interested contact Ed Hankwitz. ehankz@hotmail.com

John Schwab thanked Russ Buchanan and Jim Mount for organizing the Club. Both gave a brief thank you explaining how the club was formed. Needless to say their versions were not the same, however they were both entertaining.

Ann Hankwitz thanked all individuals that participated in collecting, washing, and repairing 165 bicycles for children in Sumter County.

Ron L'Huillier has requested volunteers to place and pick up the trail markers for the 10 mile and 30 mile "We Ride For Kids" charity event on Saturday March 10, 2012. It is not necessary to be a rider to perform this task. If you want to volunteer please contact Ron at stpetpaul@aol.com

Jim Speckbrock has started collecting dues for 2012. The annual dues are $7.00 per household (spouse or significant other).

Please complete membership application, make your check payable to
